

CARE, Cancer Aid Resource & Education, Inc. is looking for several area restaurants who want to vie for the best red enchilada recipe in the region!

Restaurants/chefs are asked to compete during CARE's 2nd Annual The Big Event: A Community that CAREs event, to be held September 21st-24th at Plaza de Las Cruces, Downtown Las Cruces. Roberto's Enchilada Cook-Off contest will be held on Sunday, September 24th from 12:00 to 3:00 p.m. and will honor a local icon, Roberto Estrada of Roberto's Mexican Food. Thus, we are proud to announce:

"Roberto's Enchilada Cook-Off Contest"!

Roberto has been known for always giving back to our community and for his involvement in The Whole Enchilada Fiesta. Roberto cooked the famous big red enchilada at the fiesta. The Whole Enchilada held the Guinness World Record for largest flat enchilada from 2000 through 2010, until a city in Mexico claimed that record with a 230-foot rolled enchilada.

The restaurants that participate will have the honor to be a part of a special contest that will fundraise and promote improving the lives of Doña Ana County residents who have recently been diagnosed cancer and are in active treatment. This contest will encompass a love of humankind by these restaurants, encouraging participation of joining of resources and action for the public good. This will be achieved by creating a fun contest where our entire community will have the opportunity to contribute to our mission in a meaningful way by promoting our culture, love of humanity and involving all our communities in Doña Ana County.

And, think of the bragging rights! With this healthy contest promoting our local restaurants and our local great food, who will get to say?:

"I have the best red enchiladas in town!!!"
